The average Psychological/Psychosocial/Psychoeducational Evaluation requires between 4 and 20 hours (combination of initial evaluation session, Test Evaluation Services, and Test Administration and Scoring) to complete.

This Good Faith Estimate is valid through the end of the calendar year for the year the Good Faith Estimate was provided⁴.
Good Faith Estimate	Estimated Total Cost: $

If you are billed for more than this Good Faith Estimate, then you have the right to dispute the bill.

- 1. You may contact the health care provider or facility listed to let them know the billed charges are higher than the Good Faith Estimate. You can ask them to update the bill to match the Good Faith Estimate, ask to negotiate the bill, or ask if there is financial assistance available.
- 2. You may also start a dispute resolution process with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). If you choose to use the dispute resolution process, you must start the dispute process within 120 calendar days (about 4 months) of the date on the original bill.
- 3. There is a $25 fee to use the dispute process. If the agency reviewing your dispute agrees with you, you will have to pay the price on this Good Faith Estimate. If the agency disagrees with you and agrees with the health care provider or facility, you will have to pay the higher amount.
- 4. To learn more and get a form to start the process, go to www.cms.gov/nosurprises.
- 5. For questions or more information about your right to a Good Faith Estimate or the dispute process, visit www.cms.gov/nosurprises or call CMS at 1-800-985-3059.
- 6. Keep a copy of this Good Faith Estimate in a safe place or take pictures of it. You may need it if you are billed more than $400 more than the estimate provided above.
